This year sees prizes on offer for the best gardens in Powys for:

Prizes for the for the Best Kept Garden, Senior Citizens Garden, Estate, Senior Citizens Estate and the Most Bee Friendly Garden in Brecknockshire, Montgomeryshire and Radnorshire are also up for grabs.

Tenants may enter their own garden, estate or even nominate a neighbour's garden but only if they have their permission. County councillors and staff from the council's Housing Services Team will also be able to nominate estates and individual gardens if the tenant has given permission.

Simon Inkson, Powys County Council's Head of Housing, said: "We know that we have lots of tenants who work very hard on their gardens and the competition is designed to give recognition to those people.

"We would like to encourage everyone who works on their garden. Be it a container or hanging basket, a full blown flower display or even a tasty vegetable garden, we want to receive your entry."

Judging will take place early August and the competition will culminate with presentation ceremonies where winners will be presented with trophies and prizes later on in the year.

Every tenant in Powys will be sent a letter with a form regarding this year's competition. If you want to enter the competition then fill in the form and return before Friday, June 30, 2017.
