

Connected Generation VACANCIES

You are here: Credu > About us > Latest news \(blog\) > Adult Carers in Powys > Connected Generation VACANCIES

Do you want to be part of a movement that facilitates and enables older people experiencing difficult life challenges to enjoy a greater sense of wellbeing? Are you passionate about supporting people and communities in a way that is enabling and empowering? Are you excited by the prospect of sharing your own skills and experience, learning new skills, and reflecting on your practice with others? Are you also organised and able to make a tangible, practical difference when working with people and communities?

The Connected Generation project, funded by the The Big Lottery Fund, involves an exciting alliance of Credu (Powys Carers Service Ltd), Age Cymru Powys, Disability Powys, Citizens Advice Powys, and Royal Voluntary Service. Between us we are recruiting for ten posts across Powys to deliver an ambitious project that makes a significant, positive impact with Older People in Powys as well as influencing policy and practice at a national level.

AN INFORMATION DAY FOR ALL POSTS WILL BE HELD on 10th October, 10.00 – 1.00 @ Citizens Advice Powys, Ladywell House, Newtown.
